

Women In Focus, Inc.
“I Have a Dream” and Miss Annie Mae McClain
2010 Scholarship Information

Scholarship Fund

Women In Focus, Inc., a Madison-area women’s service organization, uses funds raised through its annual “I Have a Dream” Ball, the Miss Annie Mae Hat Auction and other events to award scholarships to deserving college-bound male and female students selected by its Scholarship Review Committee. The amount of the scholarships is determined annually, with minimum individual awards of $2000.

Application forms are available in the offices of area high school Minority Services Coordinators and online at www.womeninfocus.net

Students selected to receive scholarships must verify full-time enrollment (registration confirmation) at a two-year or four-year college. Recipients are honored at an Award Reception in April; award checks are mailed after recipients provide Women In Focus, Inc. with registration documentation.

Eligibility Criteria

In reviewing applications, preference is given to candidates who are

- 1 Students of Color
- 2 U.S. Citizens or permanent residents
- 3 Graduating Madison-area high school seniors with the exception of Miss Annie Mae McClain scholarship candidates who may be older or continuing students.

Application Requirements

Only applications that are completed and postmarked by February 19, 2010, will be reviewed. There will be no exception. Women In Focus, Inc. Scholarship applications are complete only if the following items are submitted:

- 1 ACHIEVEMENTS AND GOALS information (page two) and the APPLICANT INFORMATION sheet (page three)
- 2 A recommendation letter from a high school/college teacher or other staff member.
- 3 A recommendation letter from another non-related adult.
- 4 An official high school or college transcript
- 5 A photo of the applicant.
- 6 Signed Publication permission and verification form (page four)

ACHIEVEMENT LIST

Attach a copy of your resume or tell us about your accomplishment and dreams in the following areas:

Community Service Activities

Explain how you have served your community in school and outside of school.

Awards and Honors

List any awards, honors, or recognition you have received from your high school/college, community service organizations, or religious congregation over the past four years.

Interests

Describe relevant personal interests and hobbies that you did not mention above.

Employment

Indicate where you have worked, your position, approximate number of hours worked per week and length of employment.

GOALS STATEMENT

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. once said “Everybody can be great, because everybody can serve. You only need a heart full of grace, a soul generated by love and you can be that servant.” In the spirit of Dr. King, please tell us about the goals you have for your future. What do you plan to study in college and what are your possible career plans? Why have you selected these? If you are still deciding about a major or career, describe the areas that you would like to explore in your studies.

If you have not yet selected a major or career, please discuss the areas that you intend to explore in college.

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

Please submit 2 letters of recommendation from persons who can comment on your work, your achievements, your service and/or your plans for the future. One letter must be from a teacher or other staff person at your school. The other can be from another non-related adult who knows you fairly well.

OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT

Either include a transcript of your high school or college work with your application or have one sent to Scholarship Review Committee, Women In Focus, Inc., c/o Tina Murray, P.O. Box 44013, Madison, WI 53744.
